Elizabeth Ricksecker	Elizabeth.Ricksecker@cms.hhs.gov	What is the call in number and access code for this meeting
Elizabeth Ricksecker	Elizabeth.Ricksecker@cms.hhs.gov		NQF Staff 2	Hello Ms. Ricksecker the public dial-in number is 855-499-0965. Please let us know if you have any other questions
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us	Is the project related to CMS's Dual Demonstration Program?
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us		NQF Staff 2	Hi Mr. Culica which project did you mean?
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us	I am thinking of the potential cross-over between MAP MCCs in Dual Eligibles and the CMS Dual Eligibles Program.
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us		NQF Staff 2	Great point CMS is very interested in the input of MAP and this should inform CMS's program.
Tom James	thomas.james@bhsi.com	Are there rural vs. Urban differences; or other significant geographical variations that should be considered in measure development?
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us	I thought so too. Please let me know if you decide to connect with CMS and if I could be of any assistance.

Tom James	thomas.james@bhsi.com		NQF Staff 2	There will be a public comment shortly if you would to raise this to the committee
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us		NQF Staff 2	Thank you, we will make sure to reach out. We also encourage you and anyone interested to join future meetings and to also engage the committee through public comments.
Tom James	thomas.james@bhsi.com	Re: the comments on affordability, those with Dual Eligible status will have the costs of transportation as barriers but should not have the medical costs as barriers. So affordability relates to transportation, and other personal costs.
Dan Culica	dan.culica@hhsc.state.tx.us	I certainly will. Thank you Dan Culica, MD, PhD.
Tom James	thomas.james@bhsi.com		NQF Staff 2	Thank you for your comment. We encourage you to share these thoughts with the Committee if you would like.

Erin Giovannetti	giovannetti@ncqa.org	As a future discussion, it would be interesting to hear the panel discuss how different levels of accountability play into these important health and wellbeing outcomes that the panel has identified. What measures should individual providers be responsible for? What measures are community level? What is the accountable community agency?
Cheryl Irmiter	cirmiter@easterseals.com	Please note, the Institute for Healthcare Improvement is working with RWJF on a wellbeing measure. It attends to healthy lives by looking at well-being (physical health, mental health, social wellbeing, and spiritual well-being. This might be of interest to this group. There are individual and community measures. RWJF should be publishing this, if it is not already published.
D.E.B. Potter	d.e.b.potter@hhs.gov	The CMS HCBS Experience with Care Survey has also completed the first round of field testing. This should also be presented to the MAP group. About 70% of the HCBS pop is also a dual. DEB Potter

Cheryl Irmiter	cirmiter@easterseals.com		NQF Staff 2	Thank you for your comment and sharing this information, we will look into the well-being measure.
Erin Giovannetti	giovannetti@ncqa.org		NQF Staff 2	Thank you for your comment. We encourage you to participate in future meetings and public comment.
D.E.B. Potter	d.e.b.potter@hhs.gov		NQF Staff 2	Hi D.E.B. thank you for sharing this information.
Cheryl Irmiter	cirmiter@easterseals.com	Quality measures have been connected to process and content; for medical issues; however, process and content in social and psychological process and content are different. I would recommend looking at Duncan, Miller, Wampold, Hubble (1999). This will address the provider perspective and quality of the process and content. Thank you.
