

Medicaid Innovation Accelerator Project 2016-2017 Reducing Substance Use Disorders Technical Expert Panel Orientation Web Meeting January 12, 2017 | 3:00pm – 5:00pm ET

The National Quality Forum (NQF) convened a web-based orientation meeting of the NQF-Medicaid Innovation Accelerator Program (IAP) Quality Measures Project Reducing Substance Use Disorders (SUD) Technical Expert Panel (TEP) on January 12, 2017. The meeting recording can be accessed using the following link: http://www.qualityforum.org/uploadedFiles/Quality_Forum/Projects/i-m/Medicaid_Innovation_Accelerator_Program/INNOVATION_011217_90432453.mp3.

Reducing Substance Use Disorders Technical Expert Panel Members in Attendance

Name	Organization
Sheryl Ryan, MD, FAAP – Technical Expert Panel Chair	Yale School of Medicine
Christina Andrews, PhD	University of South Carolina
Dennis McCarthy, PhD	Oregon Health & Science University
Tiffany Wedlake, MD, MPH	Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Decisions and/or Recommendations

Feedback from SUD TEP on Measure Sources

The SUD TEP agreed to provide the following additional information to NQF staff by January 19, 2017:

- States that are utilizing measure sets relevant to the Reducing Substance Use Disorders (SUD) Innovation Accelerator Program (IAP) priority area; and
- Contact information for state representatives who can provide more information on measures relevant to the SUD IAP priority area.