Serious Reportable Event Submission & Evaluation

The SRE Steering Committee with NQF member and public input has defined Serious Reportable Events (SREs) as preventable, serious, and unambiguous adverse events. The Committee further notes that some types of SREs are universally preventable and should never occur while other types of SREs are largely preventable and over time it may be possible to reduce these to zero as knowledge and safe practices evolve. Both types of SREs should be publicly reported.

Submitters: Complete all the non-shaded areas of this form. Please fill out a separate form for each event you are submitting to NQF for consideration. This form may be used to submit comments/changes to existing SREs or submit new SREs.

Reviewers: Complete all the yellow and pink highlighted areas of the form. Provide the rationale for your ratings.

Serious Reportable Event Submission & Evaluation

The SRE Steering Committee with NQF member and public input has defined Serious Reportable Events (SREs) as preventable, serious, and unambiguous adverse events. The Committee further notes that some types of SREs are universally preventable and should never occur while other types of SREs are largely preventable and over time it may be possible to reduce these to zero as knowledge and safe practices evolve. Both types of SREs should be publicly reported.

Submitters: Complete all the non-shaded areas of this form. Please fill out a separate form for each event you are submitting to NQF for consideration. This form may be used to submit comments/changes to existing SREs or submit new SREs.

Reviewers: Complete all the yellow and pink highlighted areas of the form. Provide the rationale for your ratings.

Rationale for removing endorsement or modifying the SRE (include pertinent evidence, data) : The criminal events are reportable under other avenues of state law. In many instances, states that adopt the NQF SREs do not include the criminal events. Removing these events would provide consistency in reporting and remove duplicate reporting.

Serious Reportable Event Submission & Evaluation

The SRE Steering Committee with NQF member and public input has defined Serious Reportable Events (SREs) as preventable, serious, and unambiguous adverse events. The Committee further notes that some types of SREs are universally preventable and should never occur while other types of SREs are largely preventable and over time it may be possible to reduce these to zero as knowledge and safe practices evolve. Both types of SREs should be publicly reported.

Submitters: Complete all the non-shaded areas of this form. Please fill out a separate form for each event you are submitting to NQF for consideration. This form may be used to submit comments/changes to existing SREs or submit new SREs.

Describe Suggested Modification(s) in specific detail: Recommend removal. If not removed recommend deletion of "staff" from wording.
Rationale for removing endorsement or modifying the SRE (include pertinent evidence, data) :
1) The criminal events are reportable under other avenues of state law. In many instances, states that adopt the NQF SREs do not include the criminal events. Removing these events would provide consistency in reporting and remove duplicate reporting.
2) This is the only category that includes staff in the definition which makes it inconsistent with the other patient oriented categories. Injuries to staff are reported under other avenues.

Serious Reportable Event Submission & Evaluation

The SRE Steering Committee with NQF member and public input has defined Serious Reportable Events (SREs) as preventable, serious, and unambiguous adverse events. The Committee further notes that some types of SREs are universally preventable and should never occur while other types of SREs are largely preventable and over time it may be possible to reduce these to zero as knowledge and safe practices evolve. Both types of SREs should be publicly reported.

Submitters: Complete all the non-shaded areas of this form. Please fill out a separate form for each event you are submitting to NQF for consideration. This form may be used to submit comments/changes to existing SREs or submit new SREs.

Reviewers: Complete all the yellow and pink highlighted areas of the form. Provide the rationale for your ratings.
